Three sisters

Kim Moss is 11. She lives with her mum and dad and her two sisters in a small house near Exeter.

Kim's sisters are Judith (16) and Lisa (14). Judith has a hamster. His name is Frank. Lisa has a cat. Her name is Jessica. Kim doesn't have a pet.

Judith has her own room but Lisa and Kim share a room. "I want my own room," says Lisa.

"And I want my own room too," says Kim. "I'm sorry, girls," says Mrs Moss. "Our house is too small for five people, a cat and a hamster!"

Kim's dad works in a bank. Her mum works at Exeter Airport. She works in a shop and sells clothes. It's a new job. "It's great," says Mrs Moss. "I see lots of nice people every day."

Kim plays lots of sports. She likes badminton and tennis and she goes swimming too.

"Swimming is my favourite sport," says Kim. "I go swimming with my dad every weekend."

Kim has a guitar. She plays every day after school. "I'm not very good, but it's fun," she says.

"And later I want to have my own band!"
